3.1.3 Students with special circumstances

When the principal can establish that a student's special circumstances require access to distance education, the principal can apply to the distance education school for single subject provision with accompanying documentary evidence to substantiate their application.

- Circumstance details

3.1.4 Flexible curriculum to facilitate acceleration

The home school is responsible for completing the NESA form for notification of acceleration for more than 12 months. As single subjects are provided to meet minimum curriculum requirements, students will not be eligible to repeat the course using distance education to improve their result.

- Evidence of a rigorous and school-based management program
- Stage 6 students need to complete All My Own Work (AMOW)
- NESA notification of acceleration for more than 12 months from home school
- Outline how time requirement for course is met

2.2.2 Out of Quota

3.2.1 Study interrupted by transfer

Students committed to studying a course in Stage 5 or Stage 6 whose study has been interrupted by transfer to another school, may have an application made on their behalf by the principal of the new school. Applications for single subject provision for these students should be made as soon as possible after the student arrives at the new school. This may include students who are temporarily attending a NSW secondary school while on a recognised exchange program.

- Government school: Approval of Director, Educational Leadership
- Non-Government school: Approval of Director, Rural and Pathways

3 PART THREE: AGREEMENTS

3.1 CONDITIONS OF ENROLMENT

The supervisor and student must agree to the following conditions of enrolment.

3.1.1 Supervisor Responsibilities

- All formal communication is directed to supervisor
- Supporting the student in their learning for the duration of their enrolment
- Overseeing timetable for engaging in schoolwork and completion of set tasks
- Monitoring student’s participation in live lessons and completion of weekly work
- Assist with locating materials and resources needed for lessons
- Provide a suitable workplace and equipment, including technology
- Responsible for safe practical work
- Strict supervision of examinations and assessment tasks at a time specified by CHHS, to ensure they are the unaided work of the student
- Contactable by phone and email during school hours
- Update the school on any student or supervisor absences or changes
- Apply for Disability Provisions for Year 12 students

3.1.2 Student and Supervisor Guarantees

- All loan materials will be returned when they are no longer needed
- The school will be updated on student circumstances including change of supervisor and any absences
- Inform the school of student illness or absences that affect student learning

3.1.3 Materials Loan

CHHS may lend textbooks, kits, CDs, DVDs, and USBs as required for subjects selected. Students and supervisors must agree to the conditions of materials loan:

- All loans items will be returned in good order within one month of studies being completed or discontinued
- Unreturned items will be paid in full

3.1.4 Award Requirements

All students must meet Department of Education and the NSW Education Standard Authority (NESA) requirements in order to qualify for the award of Record of School Achievement (RoSA) or Higher School Certificate (HSC).

Students who do not complete the course requirements will be sent a NESA warning letter. Failure to redeem these requirements will result in an 'N' determination. If a student receives an 'N' determination in a mandatory curriculum requirement course, they won't be eligible for the RoSA.

Failure to comply with the above enrolment conditions, or an 'N' determination, may lead to termination of the student's enrolment.

I certify that I have read the conditions of enrolment and agree they will be met.

3.1.5 Permission to Publish

Students are granted permission to publish by their parent/carer on Department enrolment forms to publish and/or disclose information for the purposes of sharing their experiences with other students, informing the school and broader community about school and student activities and recording student participation in noteworthy projects or community service.

This may include the student's name, age, class and materials such as photographs, sound and visual recordings, student work and expressions of opinion.

The platforms where student information may be published or disclosed include, but are not limited to:

- Public websites of the Department of Education including the school website, Department website and Department intranet (staff only)
- Department of Education and school publications including the school newsletter, annual print magazine, school report, promotional material published in print and electronically
- Official Department and school social media accounts such as YouTube and Facebook
- Local and metropolitan newspapers and other media outlets

It should be noted that when information is published on public websites and social media, it can be discoverable online for a number of years, if not permanently. Search engines may also cache or retain copies of published information and can be linked to by third parties.

If you would like to discuss student permission to publish, please contact the school.

I certify that I have read this permission to publish and

I give permission I do not give permission

To the school/department of education to publish information about my child as described above, including in publicly accessible communications. This signed permission remains effective until I advise otherwise.

3.2 PRINCIPAL'S AGREEMENT

Single course provision will be considered only when Principal certifies that Department of Education common requirements for single subject provision are met:

- The student meets all eligibility conditions of the selected subject
- The student is capable of working independently
- CHHS will be provided with relevant information on current learning adjustments, requirements for learning support provisions, and evidence for the Nationally Consistent Collection of Data (NCCD)
- A teacher at home school will take on supervisor responsibilities as listed in the Supervisor's Agreement
- The student will be allocated prescribed time to study, including daily study periods and times during school hours when Distance Education teachers can contact students
- Procedures will be in place to ensure the student regularly returns work and completes all tasks
- Student has been informed they are required to return work each week or to meet alternative minimum requirements set by Distance Education teacher
- Student will be provided with resources when required, such as printing, textbooks, reference materials, access to a phone, computer with internet, and video or audio conferencing that meet the department's current specifications
- Student has access to and use of supervised specialist rooms as required
- Procedures are in place to obtain parent/carer permission for students to attend Distance Education activities and the home school will carry out risk assessments
- A suitable and safe work placement for any vocational education and training course is possible
- The home school agrees to conduct and supervise trial HSC and mid-course examinations within the distance education school specified schedule to meet secure period requirements
- Access to a suitable venue and supervision for NESA examinations is available

The home school Principal agrees to the additional requirements of the Distance Education school:

- Learning materials returned as required
- Records are submitted to NESA by the home school for Years 10-12, indicating course is studied 'elsewhere'
- Where the student is applying for a Year 12 course, the Year 11 requirements have been met
- Distance Education school will be notified of change of supervisor
- The home school will notify of special needs, circumstances, provisions or learning adjustments for student
- In providing single subject access, the relationship is strictly between the home school and the distance education school. All aspects of the request must be assessed and managed by the home school, not the parent/carer
